

For Immediate Release

November 2014

galleryELL is proud to partner with The Stand Project and the individual artists of Aggregate: SIX in sponsoring a group exhibition and studio sale at The Experimental Space in Long Island City from 21-23 November 2014.

galleryELL & Stand's commitment to artists and community brings this unique art experience to the public. Aggregate: SIX is a group exhibition and studio sale, featuring the work of Ben Edmiston, Fran O'Neill, James Cullinane, Jeannine Bardo, John Ros and Kirsten Nash. Part exhibition, part studio sale, the event brings together a diverse group of artists to initiate dynamic dialogues about studio practices and the importance of community involvement and support. A variety of paintings and mixed media works on paper will be on view and available for purchase. galleryELL and Stand are each artist-run and artist-funded. 100% of sales generated at this event will go directly to the artists.
