

THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD ARTS GROUP

63 Flushing Ave Unit 367 | Brooklyn NY 11205

For Immediate Release

The Brooklyn Navy Yard Arts Group representing the community of artists and artisans based in the historic Brooklyn Navy Yard is pleased to announce their first group exhibition of selected artist's work. The exhibit is curated by John Ros, the founder of brooklyn-based, galleryELL, who is also a "Navy Yard artist", and organized by Ting Yih.

The exhibition will be held in a 6800 sq/ft vacant space generously provided by The Brooklyn Navy Yard Development Corporation, a not for profit agency managing the industrial complex. A diversity of artists will be displaying their works in this two-day event, occurring in conjunction with Open House New York weekend (Saturday, October 9 from 12-5 and Sunday, October 10 from 12-4).

Artists exhibiting include:

Benjamin Boland, Elizabeth Yamin, Eve Havlicek, Fabio Salvatori, Halina Marki-Lysik, Jackie Meier, Joel Bacon, John King, John Ros, Myrna Goldberg, Naomi Katz Plotkin, Nel Banner, Suprina Kenney, Tam Thomsen, Thomas Witte, Ting Yih, & Winicjusz Lysik

The exhibit spans the varied work from the Navy Yard artists, and examines what similarities, if any, bring them together as an artist group. The vast gallery space plays a major role in the exhibition reminding the viewer of their unique surroundings and the potential muse that lies silent in the artist studio.

LOCATION:

Brooklyn Navy Yard Arts Group Exhibit
building 280, suite 410 | Brooklyn Navy Yard

HOURS:

Saturday, October 9, 12-5p
Sunday, October 10, 12-4p

Reception: Saturday, October 9, 6-8p with a performance by 12000 Trees for more info please go to bnyarts.com or contact john@johnros.com